

we feel very strongly that K-LOVE is a benefit to not only our family but our community. It is one of very few stations that offers Christian music with a broad appeal and unordinary news topics. It gives our community another choice to make us more well rounded individuals.